LEAD AWARENESS AMBASSADOR

Field Based
35 Hours per week

The role

You will develop relationships with referral partners against known client needs and geographical locations, ensuring these organisations and services are of an acceptable quality. You will ensure that a value for money service is provided. You will lead the Awareness team to ensure that they have constant delivery opportunities and we have maximised exposure to the industry. You will present awareness at events promoting Ben's work and impact on the industry.

The person

We are looking for someone who is highly organised and motivated and great at developing relationships with colleagues, clients and partners. You will be a great communicator as you will be responsible for increasing awareness of Ben and our services at business events with the intention of building partnerships to deliver proactive health and wellbeing activities on their sites. You will have outstanding MS Office skills as you will be ensuring Support Services' databases are used consistently and effectively. You will be comfortable researching and gathering information to identify potential new delivery avenues. You will be a team player and advocate of everything Ben stands for.

This role involves travel so it is essential you hold a full driving licence.

In return we offer you:

- Competitive pay
- Generous holiday allowance
- Contributory Pension Scheme - matched up to 3 %
- Free DBS check (subject to eligibility being met)
- Excellent training and development
- Referral scheme
- Childcare vouchers
- Free parking
- Subsidised Restaurant
- Discount on certain car brands

If this describes you, then please contact us at careers@ben.org.uk and enclose your latest CV and covering letter explaining why you are the ideal candidate for this role.

If you are ambitious and motivated and want to make a positive difference to people's lives, get in touch with us.
