Ben helped Harry get his finances on track

Harry worked in valeting for Mitsubishi but he had to give up work to become a full-time carer for his partner who has late stage ovarian cancer. His partner had been through extensive surgery, chemotherapy and radiotherapy treatment.

Under the strain of coping with this, Harry became behind with paying their bills, including council tax, which was causing him concern.

Ben worked with Harry's resource caseworker to make sure that the couple were receiving all of the benefits they were entitled to and also put them in touch with a debt advice scheme. Additionally, Ben awarded a grant to Harry and his partner that helped clear their council tax arrears.
