The role

We have a fantastic opportunity for an individual to join our team in Lynwood Village. Lynwood Village comprises of a beautiful retirement village for the over 65s and a state of the art residential care centre set in a beautiful location in Sunninghill. The role is split between ensuring the highest level of cleanliness throughout the public areas of the Village and all areas of the care centre and Head Office. The level of cleanliness throughout our premises is the one of the first things residents, families and staff notice so this part of the job is key to ensuring our exacting high standards are met at all times. The role of the Kitchen Porter is to maintain consistent high levels of cleanliness throughout the kitchen, serveries and related storage areas including equipment, utensils, crockery and cutlery. To assist the Chef Manager / Sous Chef and kitchen team in preparing food, maintaining a high standard for residents, visitors and staff. We offer a 24/7 service so flexibility is a must.

The person

Previous experience of cleaning and providing a portering service within a customer focused environment is desirable; however it is your attitude that will make the difference. You will always be looking for ways to improve standards and you will take great pride in your work and surroundings.

If you are ambitious and motivated and want to make a positive difference to people's lives, get in touch with us.
