Support for life

Ben helped Freddie improve his income

Freddie is an apprentice at a large car manufacturer and lives alone. He is on a low wage which had left him unable to pay his rent and some of his other priority bills including council tax. He was on the verge of leaving his accommodation to live in his car as he was no longer able to cope with this difficult financial situation.

Ben worked alongside Freddie's financial inclusion caseworker to ensure he was receiving all of the benefits he was entitled to and so he could better manage his finances moving forward. Ben also awarded Freddie with a grant that helped him to pay his rent and clear his council tax arrears.
